

NO. 8

Miscellaneous

HOW'S YOUR LIVER?"

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy liver. When the LIVER is Torpid the Blood is Impure and the System is deranged and the poisoning the blood.

Frequent headache comes, and a feeling of vertigo and dizziness indicates how the system is deranged. No agency on earth can restore so many people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy liver as

SIMMONS
LIVER

REGULATOR

As a general family remedy for Dropsy, jaundice, enlarged Liver, Constipation, &c., I always use the celebrated Liver Regulator and have never been disappointed in the effect produced. It is the best and most perfect cure for all diseases of the stomach and bowels."—W. G. McCravy, Moon, Ga.

SPECTACLES,
MYE GLASSES, ETC.

he best quality carefully adjusted and fitted skilled assistants, to suit the various defects of vision.

the latest improvements, cork bridges and pieces.

AIRY THERMOMETERS.
Incubator Thermometers,

thermometers of all kinds, Catalogues or application.

W. M. M'ALLISTER,
OPTICIAN,
117 N. Main St.,
EVERYTHING
IN CONNECTION WITH Real Estate.
Weir Gilkeson,
Attorney at Law

BRISTOL, PA

SECRETARY OF: THE Prison, Fidelity,
AND
ON BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS.

Estate Rented and Sold,
Mortgages Negotiated,
Surveying,
Fire Insurance.
In of Beauty is a Joy Forever.
MR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S

AL CREAM, OF MAGICAL BEAUTIFULNESS

as well as beautifies the skin as no other Cosmetic will.

Remove Tan
Pimples
Freckles
Moth-Patch
Sty, Itchy
skin diseases and over bleeding beauty.
It cures
detection.
It has stood the test of 31 years, and is harmless to be used by preparation inside.

Accept no counterfeit of similar
The distinguished Dr. A. Sayer, said to the lady-in (a patient): "As you ladies
I recommend Sayer's as the best of all the Skin preparations." One lot will do wonders, using it every day.
Remove Sulfur, remove the superfluous hair to the skin.

THROUGHTS, Manager, 48 Bond St.,
through to Main Office, 37 Great Jones

Superior Quality
 1824
ISIC BOXES
 1876
 Sons PHILA
 1890
 Sons PHILA
 PHILA + SEND STAMP FOR CATALOGUE.
 The only music box house in Philadelphia. Import all their instruments direct from the factory in Switzerland.

Witt Brothers.

where you can get the

—
 fully invite EVERYBODY who purchase

Flowers

Examine our STOCK and
 S, then look elsewhere,
 where you can get the
 nts for the least money.
 ls of Fresh Vegetables season.
 best selections can be

MITT BROTHERS'
Green Houses,
POND STREET, BRISTOL.

NO BETTER OFF.
The swarms of his mosquitoes
Were not to be endured.
We were in every window
We put, and lost secure.
Then did the peevish servant
Who with an open smile
Lured through the door
And back door open wide.
(Harper's Bazar.)

GERMAN'S OLD MEN.
Lessons Americans May Learn From Their Mode of Life.
One of the most notable of the wonderful old men of Germany is Von Moltke. We learn a lesson or two from the German concerning the value of men.
In the United States a man is valued at 70. When he has reached that age in the German empire it is assumed that his faculties have declined and that he is no longer fit for service. In Germany, however, the highest value is placed on the old man. He is not only a power in the state, but he is also a power in the family. He is not only a power in the state, but he is also a power in the family. He is not only a power in the state, but he is also a power in the family.

Don't know Public Men.
The London population is slow to recognize the features of a public man, no matter how famous he may be. I met Mr. Russell one day in the House of Commons, and he was walking for an hour through the principal streets of London talking about Irish affairs. I was amazed to see that the Irish leader was absolutely unrecognized, except by a few old men who knew him from the days of his youth.

Don't know Public Men.
The London population is slow to recognize the features of a public man, no matter how famous he may be. I met Mr. Russell one day in the House of Commons, and he was walking for an hour through the principal streets of London talking about Irish affairs. I was amazed to see that the Irish leader was absolutely unrecognized, except by a few old men who knew him from the days of his youth.

Don't know Public Men.
The London population is slow to recognize the features of a public man, no matter how famous he may be. I met Mr. Russell one day in the House of Commons, and he was walking for an hour through the principal streets of London talking about Irish affairs. I was amazed to see that the Irish leader was absolutely unrecognized, except by a few old men who knew him from the days of his youth.

Don't know Public Men.
The London population is slow to recognize the features of a public man, no matter how famous he may be. I met Mr. Russell one day in the House of Commons, and he was walking for an hour through the principal streets of London talking about Irish affairs. I was amazed to see that the Irish leader was absolutely unrecognized, except by a few old men who knew him from the days of his youth.

Don't know Public Men.
The London population is slow to recognize the features of a public man, no matter how famous he may be. I met Mr. Russell one day in the House of Commons, and he was walking for an hour through the principal streets of London talking about Irish affairs. I was amazed to see that the Irish leader was absolutely unrecognized, except by a few old men who knew him from the days of his youth.

THE QUODDY HERMIT.

The first agent of the proprietors of Parnassus, Quoddy Island, New Brunswick, was a man named David Owen. He played the fiddle for dances, married the people, and was a self-constituted judge, kept a journal of island events in microscopic characters, wrote for the Eastern Standard, and was interested in everything that was going on in the world. He was a man of many talents, and his life was a story of adventures and hardships.

Years before he had adopted the pseudonym of Quoddy Hermit, he had cruised in the waters of the North Atlantic. He was a man of many talents, and his life was a story of adventures and hardships. He was a man of many talents, and his life was a story of adventures and hardships.

Years before he had adopted the pseudonym of Quoddy Hermit, he had cruised in the waters of the North Atlantic. He was a man of many talents, and his life was a story of adventures and hardships. He was a man of many talents, and his life was a story of adventures and hardships.

Years before he had adopted the pseudonym of Quoddy Hermit, he had cruised in the waters of the North Atlantic. He was a man of many talents, and his life was a story of adventures and hardships. He was a man of many talents, and his life was a story of adventures and hardships.

Years before he had adopted the pseudonym of Quoddy Hermit, he had cruised in the waters of the North Atlantic. He was a man of many talents, and his life was a story of adventures and hardships. He was a man of many talents, and his life was a story of adventures and hardships.

RUSSIAN EMIGRATION.

HOW THE PROVINCES THROW OFF THEIR SURPLUS POPULATION.
Schemes of Colonization Undertaken by the State—The Tendency of Emigration to the South.
The Russians are not usually regarded as an emigrating people; yet the provinces round about Moscow are constantly throwing off their surplus population towards the south of the empire. This is due to the fact that the provinces are overcrowded, and the people are seeking better opportunities elsewhere.

Most of the emigrants are of the middle class, and they are seeking better opportunities elsewhere. They are seeking better opportunities elsewhere, and they are seeking better opportunities elsewhere. They are seeking better opportunities elsewhere, and they are seeking better opportunities elsewhere.

Most of the emigrants are of the middle class, and they are seeking better opportunities elsewhere. They are seeking better opportunities elsewhere, and they are seeking better opportunities elsewhere. They are seeking better opportunities elsewhere, and they are seeking better opportunities elsewhere.

Most of the emigrants are of the middle class, and they are seeking better opportunities elsewhere. They are seeking better opportunities elsewhere, and they are seeking better opportunities elsewhere. They are seeking better opportunities elsewhere, and they are seeking better opportunities elsewhere.

Most of the emigrants are of the middle class, and they are seeking better opportunities elsewhere. They are seeking better opportunities elsewhere, and they are seeking better opportunities elsewhere. They are seeking better opportunities elsewhere, and they are seeking better opportunities elsewhere.

NOVEL CHINESE ODDITIES.

THE BIGGEST SHIP EVER BUILT READY TO LEAVE NOW SCOTIA.
A marine monster, in the form of a colossal log ship, twice as heavy as and larger than any ever built, has just been completed at the Glasgow shipyard. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace.

The ship is a marvel of engineering, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace.

The ship is a marvel of engineering, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace.

The ship is a marvel of engineering, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace.

The ship is a marvel of engineering, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace. It is a ship of war, and it is a ship of peace.

THE EDITOR'S TALK.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

THE EDITOR'S TALK.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

THE EDITOR'S TALK.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

When I began I found myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position. But now I find myself in a "specie" position.

MISCELLANEOUS.

"HOW'S YOUR LIVER?"
Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy liver. When the liver is torpid the bowels are sluggish, and constipation, and the food lies in the stomach decomposing, poisoning the blood.

SPECTACLES, EYE GLASSES, ETC.
Or the best quality, carefully adjusted and fitted to suit the vision. All the latest improvements, cork bridges and nose pieces.

DAIRY THERMOMETERS.
Incubator Thermometers. Thermometers of all kinds. Catalogues on application.

W. M. MALLISTER.
At the old stand, 751 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

EVERYTHING
In connection with Real Estate. A. Weir Gilkeson, Attorney at Law. BRISTOL, PA.

SECRETARY OF THE BRISTOL FIDELITY AND UNION BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS.

Real Estate Rented and Sold, Mortgages Negotiated, Surveying, Fire Insurance.

ASKING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER. DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM, or MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER.

SUPERIOR ESTAB. QUALITY MUSIC BOXES.

DeWitt Brothers.

Buy where you can get the most for your money.

We respectfully invite EVERYBODY who purchases

Flowers.

To examine our STOCK and PRICES, then look elsewhere, and buy where you can get the best plants for the least money.

All kinds of Fresh Vegetables in their season.

The best selections can be made at DeWitt Brothers' Green Houses.

POND STREET, BRISTOL.

FOR PRESIDENT,
G. J. BURNETT, HARRISON,
OF Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
LEVI P. MORTON, OF New York.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:
AL LONG, LEWIS PHILIP, JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA.
THOMAS POLK, PHILADELPHIA.

1. John H. Taggart, 16. John H. Green,
2. John W. Wamaker, 17. Wilson C. Cross,
3. John H. Taggart, 18. John H. Green,
4. John H. Taggart, 19. John H. Green,
5. John H. Taggart, 20. John H. Green,
6. John H. Taggart, 21. John H. Green,
7. John H. Taggart, 22. John H. Green,
8. John H. Taggart, 23. John H. Green,
9. John H. Taggart, 24. John H. Green,
10. John H. Taggart, 25. John H. Green,
11. John H. Taggart, 26. John H. Green,
12. John H. Taggart, 27. John H. Green,
13. John H. Taggart, 28. John H. Green,
14. John H. Taggart, 29. John H. Green,
15. John H. Taggart, 30. John H. Green.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE,
HON. JAMES W. HARRISON,
OF Philadelphia.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
THOMAS M. MORTON,
OF Bristol.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,
ROBERT M. YARLEY, OF Doylestown.

COUNTY CLERK,
R. CHESTER FRYER, OF Doylestown.

ASSISTANT,
JOHN W. WEINBERGER, OF Milford.

WILLIAM M. ELY, OF Doylestown.

WILSON H. TOWNSEND, OF Doylestown.

JURY COMMISSIONER,
JOSEPH H. MILNOR, OF Doylestown.

DIRECTOR OF THE POOL,
ALONZO D. NICHOLS, OF Doylestown.

THE SIGHT OF DANGER.

There are a great many Democrats at the present time who are not taking an absorbing interest in their party's candidate. Ask them the simplest question about the election and you will immediately become convinced of the direction of their thoughts. Usually they are men of toil, men who work for wages, and it is easy to discern the evidence of a lingering solicitude in their minds concerning the impending conflict between protection and free trade. They are unfriendly to the latter, and they do not mean to give it the sanction of their votes. They believe in protection. They know that the Republican party and its candidate are better friends of the beneficent policy of protecting American industries than the Democratic party and its candidate.

These men are not so closely wedded to their party as to blindly follow whosoever may lead. They have their own views, and they have the courage to withhold them from the Presidential and Congressional candidates of their party, because of the attitude of the Democratic party towards free trade. They must cast their vote in a way that shall not bring detriment to their own welfare. They would be glad to see their party triumphant under circumstances that would not imperil their own interests, but party success has no charms for them when they see in the path that leads that way a signal bearing in large, clear letters, the word "DANGER!" It is a warning they must heed. Party ties must now be secondary to personal advantage. This comes first. In no way whatever can the success of their party do them the least good, so far as they can discover, and they do not feel prepared to make a sacrifice for a shadow, or to ride with their substance for a dream. Party pride shall not stand in the way of the plain dictates of common sense. It is far more rational to guard the path of contented toil than help pave the way that only leads to empty glory.

These men are well aware that the election of Harrison and Morton will not jeopardize their wages. They know that it is better to thrive in the sunshine of protection than to live in the clouds of free trade. In the beginning the free trade cloud might be no bigger than a man's hand, but it would not be long before it would grow and expand and cover the whole land with its dark shadow.

No laboring man can be so foolish—unless he wishes to become a martyr to his party's triumph—as to vote away his real interests, and place his opportunities at the mercy of foreign competition. Protection is for his good. It secures his welfare. It shields his industry. It puts a fence between him and a cheaper workman, who, but for that fence, would drive him out or compel him to work for lower wages. Whether the cheaper workman be in a neighboring workshop or in one across the sea, the result is the same, provided the foreign product enters our market free of duty. With or without the duty, every such product purchased here takes the place of his domestic rival, and multiplies so much home industry. Protection and prosperity go hand in hand, and the mildest form of free trade taking root here would endanger their security.

The wage-earning Democrat chooses wisely in laying aside party ambition, and in so casting his vote as to protect his own interests and provide the general welfare. Side by side, shoulder to shoulder, gladly should we walk the guardians of American industry, sternly pledged to preserve the fostering care of a beneficent tariff.

Some of the Democratic clubs look like appendages of the saloon. The saloon-men hunger and thirst after the free trade of free trade. They scorn restrictions upon their business, and they have no love for home protection. As they contemplate high license they become weary and sad. The saloon is a potent factor in Democratic politics, and the Democratic party is the harbor and anchorage of the saloon. They cheerfully reciprocate favors like mutual friends.

What the English free trade importer chiefly anxiously to do is to import Free Trade into the United States of America. With a little more help from Cleveland and his party the English free trader would soon be able to celebrate his victory. Let every voter do his duty and make sure that the result of the election shall be a triumph for protection, and not a victory for free trade.

Put not your trust in free trade, or the party of free trade, or the free trade candidate of the party of free trade, or any of these free trade philosophers who deal in pretty promises, and know nothing about the practical affairs of life. What they offer you is a snare and a delusion. Beware of their designs, and hold the fort of protection.

One source of Republican protection is worth a ton of Democratic free trade.

—Thousand of voters are lost every election by inconsiderate removals, which, by a little forethought on the part of the mover, might be prevented. It is a wholesome law that requires a residence of a certain time before election day to enable one to cast a vote. Stop moving until after November 6.

—The British manufacturer cheerfully calculates Grover Cleveland, and casting a vote for him on the American market says, "let us—pro!"

—"One man's meat is another man's poison." Free trade is the British manufacturer's meat and the American workman's poison.

—It is as easy to gather flies from a thistle as to find the fruit of good wages on the thorny tree of free trade.

—What shall it profit a Democrat if his party wins and he loses his own wages?

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

—Council meets next Monday evening.

—Mrs. Edward Foster is visiting relatives at Aurora, N. Y.

—Dear Midden, the orator, at Evans' hall this evening.

—The Pioneer Club presented a fine appearance last Saturday night.

—Charles Iredell, of Painted Post, N. Y., is spending a few days in Bristol.

—The next District Attorney was a former resident of Bristol, and his name is Stout.

—The Anti-Slavery Order of Hibernians went on an excursion to Switchback this morning.

—No money was sold at the Bristol Building Association last Monday evening.

—Mrs. Fanny Huggins has bought of A. J. Hilde a frame dwelling on Spruce street for $100.

—Next Sunday will be the last day the Columbia will make trips on that day this season.

—Even the Democrats commend in the highest terms the speech of Hon. George S. Graham.

—Charles E. West, the popular captain of the steamboat Twilight, died of consumption last Monday morning.

—Harold Peirce and Henry L. Thomas of Pittsburgh, Pa., yesterday paid a brief visit to relatives in Bristol.

—The best way to get the Opera House well filled is to advertise a Protection meeting and a good speaker.

—The Young Men's Republican Club are doing good work in a quiet way. November 6th will bring the answer.

—Elwood Rightley, contractor and builder, has removed from Philadelphia and will occupy John Hope's late residence.

—The Bristol Electric Light and Power Company have decided to adopt the Edison system for lighting the borough streets.

—Sarah Ann Rogers, an eccentric woman who is well known in Bristol, has become an inmate of the Old Ladies' Home, at Wintonsburg.

—On last Sunday the Rev. I. D. King, pastor of the First Baptist church, gave notice to his congregation of his intention to resign on the first of December.

—The Young Men's Republican Club are having a large transparency made, which will adorn the front of their comfortable quarters on Mill street.

—Wilson H. Townsend is a good farmer—he will make a good member of the Legislature too, at least the voters think so, who are going to elect him.

—Rev. Dr. E. P. Shields while on his way to Presbury in New Jersey, while changing cars at Evans Junction, fell, and received serious injury to compel him to use a cane.

—Edward S. Vnehan, a well known stock broker of Philadelphia, has purchased the Peirce school property on Radcliffe street between Lafayette and Jefferson avenues, for $5,000.

—The audience at the Protection meeting at Evans' Hall on last Thursday evening was composed of about forty persons, three-fourths of whom were women. Prof. Patton was the speaker.

—Every Thursday evening, during the campaign, the Young Republicans will hold meetings at Evans' Hall, which will be addressed by able speakers. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

—On Tuesday afternoon Cyrus Peirce, son of Joshua Peirce, was thrown from his horse and received a painful wound, his lower lip being torn away from the jaw. He is recovering, and will be all right in a few days.

—The Albee base ball club of Philadelphia played in Bristol last Saturday. The game was a hot one, and the result was a tie. Seven innings were played, when the game was called on account of darkness, the score standing 4 to 4. Bristol would have won the game with ease, if not for the weakness at first base.

—A splendid game of ball will, no doubt, be witnessed on the local grounds this afternoon at Evans' Hall, which will be played by Bristol up. They bring with them Blair, the left hand twister of the Athletics club, to do the pitching, and Clements to do the back stop. Coleman and Potts will be in the points for Bristol.

—At the election of officers of Hopkins Lodge, I. O. O. F., on Wednesday evening, the following were elected: Wm. S. Wright, M. G.; Charles Dayton, V. G.; George C. Gilliam, Assistant Secretary; John M. Callahan, Treasurer, and William Kinsey Representative to the Grand Lodge.

—An entertainment for the benefit of the Helping Hand Society of the Presbyterian church will be given on Friday evening, the 12th instant. It will consist of readings and singing by Mrs. Levia Blackie, and instrumental music. The price of admission has been fixed at 25 cents.

—Charles P. Madden, whose speech in favor of Protection, at the opera house several weeks ago, so greatly pleased the large audience there assembled, will speak this evening at Evans' Hall. Mr. Madden is a well known and successful business man, and a naturally deep interest in the success of the Republican ticket.

—There was a large assemblage at the Opera House last Saturday night to hear George S. Graham, Esq., of Philadelphia, and Congressman Robert M. Yardley discuss the questions of the day from a Republican standpoint. During William H. Grundy was the moderator, and the introduction of the speakers. Both Mr. Graham and Mr. Yardley made effective speeches, and their remarks were frequently interrupted by applause. Their facts and conclusions were convincing, and the general verdict is that the meeting was productive of much good.

—The eighth semi-annual convention of the W. C. T. U., of Bucks county, was held at Langhorne on last Saturday. Mrs. Hannah G. Conly, of Langhorne, made the address of welcome, which was responded to by Mrs. Levia Blackie of Doylestown. Reports of the different committees were made and an election of officers was held. The following were chosen: President, Mrs. C. S. Holcomb; Vice President, Mrs. Dr. E. J. Groom; Secretary, Miss Lucy N. Felt; Treasurer, Mrs. Levia Blackie; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Anna M. Hargrave; Delegate to National Convention, Miss Anna Eastburn. The next convention will be held at Yardley next spring.

—"Conspiracies no sooner should be formed than executed," and a cold should no sooner be taken, than a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup should be bought and used according to the directions.

—One source of Republican protection is worth a ton of Democratic free trade.

—Thousand of voters are lost every election by inconsiderate removals, which, by a little forethought on the part of the mover, might be prevented. It is a wholesome law that requires a residence of a certain time before election day to enable one to cast a vote. Stop moving until after November 6.

—The British manufacturer cheerfully calculates Grover Cleveland, and casting a vote for him on the American market says, "let us—pro!"

—"One man's meat is another man's poison." Free trade is the British manufacturer's meat and the American workman's poison.

—It is as easy to gather flies from a thistle as to find the fruit of good wages on the thorny tree of free trade.

—What shall it profit a Democrat if his party wins and he loses his own wages?

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

—Council meets next Monday evening.

—Mrs. Edward Foster is visiting relatives at Aurora, N. Y.

—Dear Midden, the orator, at Evans' hall this evening.

—The Pioneer Club presented a fine appearance last Saturday night.

—Charles Iredell, of Painted Post, N. Y., is spending a few days in Bristol.

—The next District Attorney was a former resident of Bristol, and his name is Stout.

—The Anti-Slavery Order of Hibernians went on an excursion to Switchback this morning.

—No money was sold at the Bristol Building Association last Monday evening.

—Mrs. Fanny Huggins has bought of A. J. Hilde a frame dwelling on Spruce street for $100.

—Next Sunday will be the last day the Columbia will make trips on that day this season.

—Even the Democrats commend in the highest terms the speech of Hon. George S. Graham.

—Charles E. West, the popular captain of the steamboat Twilight, died of consumption last Monday morning.

—Harold Peirce and Henry L. Thomas of Pittsburgh, Pa., yesterday paid a brief visit to relatives in Bristol.

—The best way to get the Opera House well filled is to advertise a Protection meeting and a good speaker.

—The Young Men's Republican Club are doing good work in a quiet way. November 6th will bring the answer.

—Elwood Rightley, contractor and builder, has removed from Philadelphia and will occupy John Hope's late residence.

—The Bristol Electric Light and Power Company have decided to adopt the Edison system for lighting the borough streets.

—Sarah Ann Rogers, an eccentric woman who is well known in Bristol, has become an inmate of the Old Ladies' Home, at Wintonsburg.

—On last Sunday the Rev. I. D. King, pastor of the First Baptist church, gave notice to his congregation of his intention to resign on the first of December.

—The Young Men's Republican Club are having a large transparency made, which will adorn the front of their comfortable quarters on Mill street.

—Wilson H. Townsend is a good farmer—he will make a good member of the Legislature too, at least the voters think so, who are going to elect him.

—Rev. Dr. E. P. Shields while on his way to Presbury in New Jersey, while changing cars at Evans Junction, fell, and received serious injury to compel him to use a cane.

—Edward S. Vnehan, a well known stock broker of Philadelphia, has purchased the Peirce school property on Radcliffe street between Lafayette and Jefferson avenues, for $5,000.

—The audience at the Protection meeting at Evans' Hall on last Thursday evening was composed of about forty persons, three-fourths of whom were women. Prof. Patton was the speaker.

—Every Thursday evening, during the campaign, the Young Republicans will hold meetings at Evans' Hall, which will be addressed by able speakers. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

—On Tuesday afternoon Cyrus Peirce, son of Joshua Peirce, was thrown from his horse and received a painful wound, his lower lip being torn away from the jaw. He is recovering, and will be all right in a few days.

—The Albee base ball club of Philadelphia played in Bristol last Saturday. The game was a hot one, and the result was a tie. Seven innings were played, when the game was called on account of darkness, the score standing 4 to 4. Bristol would have won the game with ease, if not for the weakness at first base.

—A splendid game of ball will, no doubt, be witnessed on the local grounds this afternoon at Evans' Hall, which will be played by Bristol up. They bring with them Blair, the left hand twister of the Athletics club, to do the pitching, and Clements to do the back stop. Coleman and Potts will be in the points for Bristol.

—At the election of officers of Hopkins Lodge, I. O. O. F., on Wednesday evening, the following were elected: Wm. S. Wright, M. G.; Charles Dayton, V. G.; George C. Gilliam, Assistant Secretary; John M. Callahan, Treasurer, and William Kinsey Representative to the Grand Lodge.

—An entertainment for the benefit of the Helping Hand Society of the Presbyterian church will be given on Friday evening, the 12th instant. It will consist of readings and singing by Mrs. Levia Blackie, and instrumental music. The price of admission has been fixed at 25 cents.

—Charles P. Madden, whose speech in favor of Protection, at the opera house several weeks ago, so greatly pleased the large audience there assembled, will speak this evening at Evans' Hall. Mr. Madden is a well known and successful business man, and a naturally deep interest in the success of the Republican ticket.

—There was a large assemblage at the Opera House last Saturday night to hear George S. Graham, Esq., of Philadelphia, and Congressman Robert M. Yardley discuss the questions of the day from a Republican standpoint. During William H. Grundy was the moderator, and the introduction of the speakers. Both Mr. Graham and Mr. Yardley made effective speeches, and their remarks were frequently interrupted by applause. Their facts and conclusions were convincing, and the general verdict is that the meeting was productive of much good.

—The eighth semi-annual convention of the W. C. T. U., of Bucks county, was held at Langhorne on last Saturday. Mrs. Hannah G. Conly, of Langhorne, made the address of welcome, which was responded to by Mrs. Levia Blackie of Doylestown. Reports of the different committees were made and an election of officers was held. The following were chosen: President, Mrs. C. S. Holcomb; Vice President, Mrs. Dr. E. J. Groom; Secretary, Miss Lucy N. Felt; Treasurer, Mrs. Levia Blackie; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Anna M. Hargrave; Delegate to National Convention, Miss Anna Eastburn. The next convention will be held at Yardley next spring.

—"Conspiracies no sooner should be formed than executed," and a cold should no sooner be taken, than a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup should be bought and used according to the directions.

—One source of Republican protection is worth a ton of Democratic free trade.

—Thousand of voters are lost every election by inconsiderate removals, which, by a little forethought on the part of the mover, might be prevented. It is a wholesome law that requires a residence of a certain time before election day to enable one to cast a vote. Stop moving until after November 6.

—The British manufacturer cheerfully calculates Grover Cleveland, and casting a vote for him on the American market says, "let us—pro!"

—"One man's meat is another man's poison." Free trade is the British manufacturer's meat and the American workman's poison.

—It is as easy to gather flies from a thistle as to find the fruit of good wages on the thorny tree of free trade.

—What shall it profit a Democrat if his party wins and he loses his own wages?

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

—Council meets next Monday evening.

—Mrs. Edward Foster is visiting relatives at Aurora, N. Y.

—Dear Midden, the orator, at Evans' hall this evening.

—The Pioneer Club presented a fine appearance last Saturday night.

—Charles Iredell, of Painted Post, N. Y., is spending a few days in Bristol.

—The next District Attorney was a former resident of Bristol, and his name is Stout.

—The Anti-Slavery Order of Hibernians went on an excursion to Switchback this morning.

—No money was sold at the Bristol Building Association last Monday evening.

—Mrs. Fanny Huggins has bought of A. J. Hilde a frame dwelling on Spruce street for $100.

—Next Sunday will be the last day the Columbia will make trips on that day this season.

—Even the Democrats commend in the highest terms the speech of Hon. George S. Graham.

—Charles E. West, the popular captain of the steamboat Twilight, died of consumption last Monday morning.

—Harold Peirce and Henry L. Thomas of Pittsburgh, Pa., yesterday paid a brief visit to relatives in Bristol.

—The best way to get the Opera House well filled is to advertise a Protection meeting and a good speaker.

—The Young Men's Republican Club are doing good work in a quiet way. November 6th will bring the answer.

—Elwood Rightley, contractor and builder, has removed from Philadelphia and will occupy John Hope's late residence.

—The Bristol Electric Light and Power Company have decided to adopt the Edison system for lighting the borough streets.

—Sarah Ann Rogers, an eccentric woman who is well known in Bristol, has become an inmate of the Old Ladies' Home, at Wintonsburg.

—On last Sunday the Rev. I. D. King, pastor of the First Baptist church, gave notice to his congregation of his intention to resign on the first of December.

—The Young Men's Republican Club are having a large transparency made, which will adorn the front of their comfortable quarters on Mill street.

—Wilson H. Townsend is a good farmer—he will make a good member of the Legislature too, at least the voters think so, who are going to elect him.

—Rev. Dr. E. P. Shields while on his way to Presbury in New Jersey, while changing cars at Evans Junction, fell, and received serious injury to compel him to use a cane.

—Edward S. Vnehan, a well known stock broker of Philadelphia, has purchased the Peirce school property on Radcliffe street between Lafayette and Jefferson avenues, for $5,000.

—The audience at the Protection meeting at Evans' Hall on last Thursday evening was composed of about forty persons, three-fourths of whom were women. Prof. Patton was the speaker.

—Every Thursday evening, during the campaign, the Young Republicans will hold meetings at Evans' Hall, which will be addressed by able speakers. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

—On Tuesday afternoon Cyrus Peirce, son of Joshua Peirce, was thrown from his horse and received a painful wound, his lower lip being torn away from the jaw. He is recovering, and will be all right in a few days.

—The Albee base ball club of Philadelphia played in Bristol last Saturday. The game was a hot one, and the result was a tie. Seven innings were played, when the game was called on account of darkness, the score standing 4 to 4. Bristol would have won the game with ease, if not for the weakness at first base.

—A splendid game of ball will, no doubt, be witnessed on the local grounds this afternoon at Evans' Hall, which will be played by Bristol up. They bring with them Blair, the left hand twister of the Athletics club, to do the pitching, and Clements to do the back stop. Coleman and Potts will be in the points for Bristol.

—At the election of officers of Hopkins Lodge, I. O. O. F., on Wednesday evening, the following were elected: Wm. S. Wright, M. G.; Charles Dayton, V. G.; George C. Gilliam, Assistant Secretary; John M. Callahan, Treasurer, and William Kinsey Representative to the Grand Lodge.

—An entertainment for the benefit of the Helping Hand Society of the Presbyterian church will be given on Friday evening, the 12th instant. It will consist of readings and singing by Mrs. Levia Blackie, and instrumental music. The price of admission has been fixed at 25 cents.

—Charles P. Madden, whose speech in favor of Protection, at the opera house several weeks ago, so greatly pleased the large audience there assembled, will speak this evening at Evans' Hall. Mr. Madden is a well known and successful business man, and a naturally deep interest in the success of the Republican ticket.

—There was a large assemblage at the Opera House last Saturday night to hear George S. Graham, Esq., of Philadelphia, and Congressman Robert M. Yardley discuss the questions of the day from a Republican standpoint. During William H. Grundy was the moderator, and the introduction of the speakers. Both Mr. Graham and Mr. Yardley made effective speeches, and their remarks were frequently interrupted by applause. Their facts and conclusions were convincing, and the general verdict is that the meeting was productive of much good.

—The eighth semi-annual convention of the W. C. T. U., of Bucks county, was held at Langhorne on last Saturday. Mrs. Hannah G. Conly, of Langhorne, made the address of welcome, which was responded to by Mrs. Levia Blackie of Doylestown. Reports of the different committees were made and an election of officers was held. The following were chosen: President, Mrs. C. S. Holcomb; Vice President, Mrs. Dr. E. J. Groom; Secretary, Miss Lucy N. Felt; Treasurer, Mrs. Levia Blackie; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Anna M. Hargrave; Delegate to National Convention, Miss Anna Eastburn. The next convention will be held at Yardley next spring.

—"Conspiracies no sooner should be formed than executed," and a cold should no sooner be taken, than a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup should be bought and used according to the directions.

—One source of Republican protection is worth a ton of Democratic free trade.

—Thousand of voters are lost every election by inconsiderate removals, which, by a little forethought on the part of the mover, might be prevented. It is a wholesome law that requires a residence of a certain time before election day to enable one to cast a vote. Stop moving until after November 6.

—The British manufacturer cheerfully calculates Grover Cleveland, and casting a vote for him on the American market says, "let us—pro!"

—"One man's meat is another man's poison." Free trade is the British manufacturer's meat and the American workman's poison.

—It is as easy to gather flies from a thistle as to find the fruit of good wages on the thorny tree of free trade.

—What shall it profit a Democrat if his party wins and he loses his own wages?

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

—Council meets next Monday evening.

—Mrs. Edward Foster is visiting relatives at Aurora, N. Y.

—Dear Midden, the orator, at Evans' hall this evening.

—The Pioneer Club presented a fine appearance last Saturday night.

—Charles Iredell, of Painted Post, N. Y., is spending a few days in Bristol.

—The next District Attorney was a former resident of Bristol, and his name is Stout.

—The Anti-Slavery Order of Hibernians went on an excursion to Switchback this morning.

—No money was sold at the Bristol Building Association last Monday evening.

—Mrs. Fanny Huggins has bought of A. J. Hilde a frame dwelling on Spruce street for $100.

—Next Sunday will be the last day the Columbia will make trips on that day this season.

—Even the Democrats commend in the highest terms the speech of Hon. George S. Graham.

—Charles E. West, the popular captain of the steamboat Twilight, died of consumption last Monday morning.

—Harold Peirce and Henry L. Thomas of Pittsburgh, Pa., yesterday paid a brief visit to relatives in Bristol.

—The best way to get the Opera House well filled is to advertise a Protection meeting and a good speaker.

—The Young Men's Republican Club are doing good work in a quiet way. November 6th will bring the answer.

—Elwood Rightley, contractor and builder, has removed from Philadelphia and will occupy John Hope's late residence.

—The Bristol Electric Light and Power Company have decided to adopt the Edison system for lighting the borough streets.

—Sarah Ann Rogers, an eccentric woman who is well known in Bristol, has become an inmate of the Old Ladies' Home, at Wintonsburg.

—On last Sunday the Rev. I. D. King, pastor of the First Baptist church, gave notice to his congregation of his intention to resign on the first of December.

—The Young Men's Republican Club are having a large transparency made, which will adorn the front of their comfortable quarters on Mill street.

